Robert Sieving has become one of the most respected and reliable arrangers in the industry for his efforts to bring the works of historically important composers and/or styles to today's choral singers. In "Intorno all' idol mio," he beautifully sets a lovely aria from the Cesti opera "Orontea" for women's voices. As is always the case with music in the Janet Galván series, we include notes about the period and the music, an IPA translation for the Italian text, and a historically accurate representation of music from the Baroque period. / Educational Octavo / SSA, Piano / Concert
