The sound and the Fury

Faulkner William

The sound and the Fury Faulkner William

Despite its position in the literary pantheon, THE SOUND AND THE FURY signifies nothing.....

Faulkner created his "heart's darling," the beautiful and tragic Caddy Compson, whose story Faulkner told through separate monologues by her three brothers--the idiot Benjy, the neurotic suicidal Quentin and the monstrous Jason. What Faulkner has created is a modernist epic in which characters assume the stature of gods and the primal family events resonate like myths. It is The Sound and the Fury that secures his place in what Edmund Wilson called "the full-dressed post-Flaubert group of Conrad, Joyce, and Proust. THIS IS THE TIE-IN FOR THE HIT MOVIE STARRING JOANNE WOODWARD AND YUL (or in this case, Y'ALL) BRYNNER.....with stills on the covers!
