Crashing the Sentinel Evan McTeagle

Jimmy Salblyer, an intense, haunted man, leads a small band of Philadelphia-based, underground gray hat hackers who use their skills to earn a living - invisibly. Despite strong technical prowess, Salblyer's team - Neil McGee, Chris Lodge, and Alan Scott - frays badly over recently lost hacker competitions and their dwindling finances.

Spirits lift briefly upon receipt of a hacker contest invitation, oddly offering a huge cash reward to 'steal' hard drives containing a certain file from a local corporation's network. But wounds reopen when Jimmy impetuously adds a mysterious, newly-relocated barista, Gina Shuler, to their group.

Unknown to Jimmy, due to a barbaric act of sabotage from within the agency's ranks, the targeted hard drives are an improperly setup failsafe backup - and the only remaining copy - of "Operation Eager Sentinel," a top secret database, maintained by the NSA's darkest and most covert unit.

Challenged to quietly get Eager Sentinel back online, the NSA's understaffed caretakers prepare to ensure no "loose ends" remain after Jimmy's unsuspecting team delivers the disks.

But shadowy, international parties materialize and vie for a shot at obtaining the priceless data, leaving Salblyer's group hopelessly entangled in an expanding web of unseen, murderous threats. When the extent of the team's danger becomes clear, the race to uncover the truth of the Sentinel - and to survive - begins.
