Jesus the Christ, a true gospel classic about the life and ministry of the Savior, has drawn readers closer to Christ for decades. Commemorating the 100th anniversary of the publication of Jesus the Christ and aligned with the New Testament study year, this unique study guide helps learners of all levels get even more out of their study of the Savior, the scriptures, and a beloved, classic book.

Following Jesus the Christ chapter by chapter, authors Richard Holzapfel and Thom Wayment relate the book to today's learner as they share discoveries from the past century, offer additional insights, suggest study questions, and provide a glossary of difficult words. Will this be the year you develop a deeper relationship with the Savior?
