Review By Katrina-Kasey Wheeler, Pop Media Examiner

Barry Gordy writes in the introduction for the newly re-released Michael Jackson memoir, 'Moonwalk': "Michael Jackson was not an artist who comes along once in a decade, a generation, or a lifetime. He was an artist who comes along only once, period. He was the consummate student. He studied the greats and became greater. He raised the bar and then BROKE the bar." This quote captures exactly how Michael Jackson's fans feel about him, while the world adjusts to his physical absence, his music will live on through his fans. Michael Jackson said: "Music has been my outlet, my gift to all of the lovers in this world. Through it, my music, I know I will live forever" and he was absolutely right. "Michael Jackson for the Fans" released by Wright Book Publishing is a beautiful materialization chronicling the life and achievements of the King of Pop – a wonderful way for the fans to remember him by. The tribute is a series of photographs from his album, film sets, concerts and much more. There are also artistic renderings and the lyrics from all of his albums. Also contained in the book are facts about MJ that are of interest to fans – trivia. The tribute provides a detailed history of Jackson's countless awards and accomplishments bestowed to him as the greatest entertainer that the world has ever known. The tribute highlights his many contributions to humanitarian efforts and the numerous charities which he donated to as well as his legendary style that defined an era. "Michael Jackson for the Fans" is a book like no other, a tribute that celebrates Michael Jackson's life, and does so for the fans that he loved and who loved him greatly in return. This is a tribute that every fan must have in their collection. It is unlike anything currently seen in stores. Another distinguishing characteristic that sets this tribute apart from others is that everything in this book is positive and uplifting, fitting for Michael Jackson's true fans. "Michael Jackson for the Fans" is a tribute that captures the essence of Michael Jackson – the performer, the humanitarian. It was created with love and a sense of knowing what the fans would most identify with and want to see in a tribute to Michael Jackson. For innumerable people around the world, it is anything but easy to accept Michael Jackson's passing, but knowing that his legacy of music, love and philanthropy will live forever, makes the loss somewhat
