History and Lineage Book: National Society Women Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company Mrs. Edward Perry (compiled by) Walsh

The idea of printing a Lineage Book of the Members and History of the National Society Women Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company was proposed by Mrs. Edward Perry Walsh, President National, at a Board meeting in Washington, D.C., October 25, 1939. The board voted to accept the proposal and the action of the Board was ratified by members of the National Society at the Rendezvous in Washington, D. D., on April 20, 1940. The idea was accepted whole-heartedly by the members and eighty-two supplementals were entered forthwith for publication. In order to appreciate more fully the descent of the members, the editor decided to include a sketch of the organization known as the Fraternity of St. George or Artillery Guild, since known as the Honourable Artillery Company of London. Also a brief sketch of the Military Company of Massachusetts, now called the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts and following this the history of the National Society of Women Descendants. - Fannie Long Walsh (Mrs. Edward Perry Walsh), President National, 1939-1941.
