Historical Atlas of Ancient Christianity Angelo Di Berardino, Gianluca Pilara

This new Historical Atlas is the first of its kind to provide a detailed picture of the early church's physical presence in the empire, tracing Christianity's geographical footprint upon the map of the ancient world. Complete with 59 full-color and detailed maps, illustrations of important monuments and places, and an up-to-date scholarly bibliography, the Historical Atlas serves both as a valuable reference work and a useful teaching tool. The Historical Atlas of Ancient Christianity will serve as an indispensable tool for those desiring to study the ancient Christian period in its historical as well as its geographical context. Fr. Angelo DiBerardino, former president of the Augustinianum in Rome has provided an expert guide through the early Christian world.
