Labour in Irish History

James Connolly Connolly

Labour in Irish History James Connolly Connolly

James Connolly (1868 – 1916) was an Irish republican and socialist leader, aligned to syndicalism and the Industrial Workers of the World. He was born in the Cowgate area of Edinburgh, Scotland, to Irish immigrant parents. He left school for working life at the age of 11, but became one of the leading Marxist theorists of his day. He also took a role in Scottish and American politics. He was executed by a British firing squad because of his leadership role in the Easter Rising of 1916.

This book published in 1919 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.
