It's not just about a shooting. It's about why they happen. It will surprise you. A mom whose son is shot won't quit searching, even in the face of life-threatening danger. She shakes the halls of Congress and takes down a powerful company to expose the real reason mass shootings happen. Reader comments:

"Compelling." ... "Gripping." ... "A page-turner!" "I read it in two days." ... "Couldn't put it down." "Hated to stop reading but I had to get some rest." "I'm amazed the media doesn't cover this!" Cassie Stevens, a single mom and Dallas reporter, is devastated by her own son's critical injury from the attack. But in the midst of her own grief, Cassie is alerted to a possible reason for the attack, and her sense of justice drives her to start probing. While investigating, she uncovers a health issue that is likely to extend the national epidemic of deadly mass shootings. Her life in danger from those who want the problem kept quiet, she presses on, only to find herself in opposition to a powerful government agency. If you like strong women who will battle for justice against the unfair tactics of the rich and powerful, you will absolutely love the page-turning suspense of this thriller. This Present Madness is a compelling mystery that deals with a real-world problem. Get your copy today!
