Where Angels Play Daniel Chiera

As two wise-cracking friends (one firefighter and one paramedic), share the camaraderie of their life-saving work, they realize they have something else in common: Their vivid dreams make them witnesses to the clash of good and evil in beings that inhabited the Earth long ago.

By chance—or is it fate?—they meet a woman, a psychotherapist who specializes in the interpretation of dreams, who helps them make sense of their subconscious visions.

In her own way, she is also a seeker of truth and transcendence. Through her friendship with a Catholic priest whose research focuses on ancient texts, she discovers the deeper meaning of the intertwined narratives of the Bible, Greek mythology and Egyptian history.

Where Angels Play ushers readers into the realm of Olympian gods and titans in epic battles and tender romance, of heavenly angels and fallen angels, and of flawed humans and their modern-day descendants—all under the watchful eye of the Almighty creator of the universe.
