Directory of Paying Markets for Freelance Writers Julie G. M. Scott

Directory of Paying Markets for Freelance Writers is pages of sources and sites for new writers and seasoned writers as well. The listing contains links to writer guidelines for each site or source. In most cases, notation is made relevant to the country of residence where an author-applicant is living. This is not to eliminate certain authors, but rather the ability of a source to operate and/or convert currency for payments.

Additionally, inserts of information separated into chapters with descriptions from the author are part of this directory. These relate to articles, magazines, curriculum, white papers, websites and blogging. However, the directory is essentially a list and the supplementary information is here to introduce or define specific types of listings.
