Standalone romance book, no cliffhangers!

Angelica has a head full of words: questions, thoughts, jokes, but she finds it difficult getting them out of her mouth.

As an intern at a local news station in Portland with aspirations to become her own newscaster, this is a serious limitation.

She is simply trying to make it to the next moment of her life, coasting across the anxiety-ridden challenges as they are thrown at her.

One disaster leads to the next until she finds herself in the presence of Blake Hancock, the one and only billionaire in Oregon. Miraculously, her head is quiet and it's her heart in overdrive...
