He plans to take the wander right out of her wanderlust.

Texas Montgomery Mavericks, Book 5

Magda Hobbs's job as ranch housekeeper—and its daily dose of cowboys—wreaked havoc on her libido. Especially one certain cowboy she couldn't resist. Scared of going down the same path as her mother, Magda jumped on her motorcycle and hit the road.

Five months later, her father's mild heart attack has forced her back to Whispering Springs. While she's grateful for the cleaning job at one of the Montgomery ranch houses, she's not so thrilled one of the cowboys she's looking after is the one she fell for last spring.

Reno Montgomery's parents hiring a housekeeper for him and his brother is a nice surprise, but he's shocked to discover it's Magda, the woman who up and left just when things were getting serious between them.

When a freak snowstorm cuts off the outside world, the isolation rekindles their desire. But when the weather and the roads clear, Reno has to work hard and fast to keep the woman of his dreams from accelerating right out of his life again.

Warning: Contains a woman born with a bad case of wanderlust, and a cowboy determined to show her that life's a dance that doesn't have to two-step her out of his life.
