"Shepherd Me, Lord, into the desert - this Lenten desert - that has my name on it, for I do not want to miss the graced moment of this liturgical season." - From the introduction.

How should we enter Lent? How are we to be led through the Lenten desert into the Promised Land of good things the Lord desires for us? We must always keep close to us the knowledge that we do not commence our journeys alone. Christ walks with us through the desert; the Lord shepherds us into His kingdom. And it is through Lent that we arrive in the Promised Land, readied and equipped with open hearts, purified through fasting, discipline, good deeds, and prayer.

Dr. Tom Curran's Shepherd Me, Lord presents a compilation of daily reflections to help you on your journey through Lent. With wisdom, scriptural direction, and practical knowledge, Dr. Curran sets forth challenging, introspective questions and considerations to guide you towards the virtues of poverty, purity, and humility. Dr. Curran also includes practical and useful ways for enriching your life of prayer during this Lenten season and beyond.

Let Shepherd Me, Lord aid you in your journey through the Lenten desert. Let this book inspire a deeper sense of prayer, meditation, and discipline in anticipation of God's imminent Easter Glory.

The live edition by Dr. Tom Curran is available on CD.
