Today, Tomorrow and Always (Book Three) (The Tomorrow Series 3) Megan Nugen Isbell

It's been two years since Natalie Vasser left behind New York City and her one great love, Drew Saben. The seemingly perfect life they'd created wasn't without its faults and she knew the only way to save them both was to leave. It was the hardest decision she's ever made and one that didn't come without regrets.

Drew hasn't been able to let go of Natalie since she called off their engagement and returned to Iowa. She's never left his mind and he's never given up hope that someday she might come back to him. He's reconciled his past and she is on the path to achieving the personal success she's craved, but what does that mean for them?

When a new job brings Natalie back to New York, can she and Drew find the connection they once shared or have they missed their chance? And even if they can rekindle what they had, will life leave them to their happiness or find another way to tear them apart?

Find out if second chances are possible or if the past is best left alone in the conclusion to Natalie and Drew's journey in Today, Tomorrow and Always.
