Every once in awhile a book of World War II fiction will be very good and very interesting. The subject matter concerns itself with guerrilla operations in Burma, with the Kachin native troops highlighted. Their mission is, of course, to fight the Japanese troops in Burma---and to do so they must fight behind the Japanese lines. It "...is a violent, exhausting, perilous life." The attention Tom Chamales pays to details---the Kachins, the Burma theatre, and the experience of being there---is noteworthy in this his first novel. THIS IS THE BASIS FOR THE HIT MOVIE STARRING FRANK SINATRA!!
