Kissed by Sin T. Williams

Naomi is a young woman with no family left. Exploring and living in California, she meets her “First love,” Santiago, who treats her like a complete princess, but within a snap, robs her of her innocence, hurting her physically, mentally and verbally. What Naomi does for Santiago in the name of love changes when she meets Honey, who’s on her side and takes care of her, but finds herself desperate for her attention, and in the end, is faced with a life or death situation?
