All Mary wanted was a little R&R here at this remote mountain spa. Thing is, Mary's always been a little too curious for her own good. So, when she decides to take a walk off the property, into the woods, she stumbles on a something, or someone, that will change her life.

Deep in the forest Mary finds herself standing at the edge of a lake, staring across the water at a glistening, rippling man. He senses her across the distance and knows immediately who has found him--his mate. He races to her side, delighting in her presence, teasing her and tasting her. But now is not the time--they must wait until nightfall...

Midnight comes and Mary returns to the lake and to the sound of a beast within the woods. It gets closer...and closer...and finally Mary learns the truth of her lover and must make a choice to return to her old life, or be his mate!
