Is it really possible to thaw the coldest of hearts?

American, Ana Clarkson is stranded in Scotland with the mysterious, handsome Eric Macleod. Despite the cold, her romance has been heating up until she's faced with an army of angry men at his door. Men that want Eric dead and at her father's funeral she suddenly finds herself caught up in a war that has been fought for centuries and all she has to do is get back to safety, but is it really that easy?

Eric Macleod is the man with secret, one that he has managed to keep from everyone, including the curvy beauty that landed on his doorstep, until bear hunters turn up at his mansion and disturb the peace forcing the bear out and revealing the secret he tired so hard to keep. He knows what will break the curse, but can he still protect her without the bear?

With the BHSS on her back, can she really outrun them and help Eric to safety, especially when she finds out they are much closer to home than she really thinks in the final instalment of the Scotland Shifter series.

This is Part Two of the Scotland Shifter series.
