Fearless Prayer Sheronda L Barksdale

Fearless Prayer is an empowering, short book filled with encouraging words and techniques for those who are ready to release fear and to pray with boldness. The author wrote this with the intention to create an increase of confidence that will be realized at the completion of this read: confidence for striving towards goals and dreams, and even for living daily life. While reading this book, the reader will encounter exercises that will cause them to explore the areas of fear that may be inside of them, identify the moments when they pray fearfully, and engage in fearless prayer. Have you ever found yourself feeling uncertain that the things you pray for will not come to pass? Then this book is for you! Readers will experience a newfound hope and security in knowing everything will work out, as well as new depths in their relationship with God. No one will walk away from this book the same!
