Letters from Home David M Snyder

We are all on a journey. We are wanderers looking for our home. The only problem is some have forgotten about home. In the book of Revelation, Jesus sends seven letters to seven churches. In His letters He gives them a wake-up call, urging them to remember. The instructions He gives in these letters are vital for every believer to understand, especially as we enter the last days. As you read this book you will discover the heart of the Father who is calling His children to get ready for home. Your faith will be strengthened and you will learn how to live like you are on a journey home.
