The Saintly Lives of Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II.

This book is the second edition of the books about Modern Saints. These are people of our modern day, within the last 50 to 100 years. They are people like you and me; we are all called to be Saints, as they were. This special edition is about Holy, Saintly Popes. The first in this volume is about Pope John XXIII. He was also known as "Good Pope John". He was only Pope for about 5 years, but he did much to update the Catholic faith. He created The Second Vatican Council and brought the Mass into the vernacular. He was a very humble and holy man. He had a great love for people and the people loved him also.

The second holy Pope in this edition is Pope John Paul II. I am sure even more people today remember this great and holy pope, who reigned for over 25 years. He was the second longest reigning pope in the history of Catholicism, from 1978 to 2005 the year of his death. Pope John Paul "The Great" as he is known by, did much for our wonderful Catholic faith, he helped very much with the rid of communism. He also started World Youth Day and the updating and publishing of the new Catechism. They are Canonized on Mercy Sunday, April 27th 2014.
