The TINSEL TURMOIL PRODUCTIONS series provides you with a basic script with around a dozen characters plus ideas for including dancers, choirs or larger groups. Very adaptable and gives you enough ideas without restricting you! PETER PAN opens to a spectacular “flying” theme – Superman etc. Tinkerbelle gets the audience excited about Peter Pan and the fact that he can fly but she is swiftly interrupted by ALF and Sid (Health and safety representatives). They stop anything “dangerous” throughout the show. The scene switches to the DARLING household where the children are demanding a story for bedtime. (SET PIECE: CHILDREN’S BOOKS). CAPTAIN HOOK enters and steals a toy from the children. PETER PAN is discovered on the window ledge – a fact that is pounced upon by Alf and Sid. The stage manager tries to reach a compromise. Peter and the children eventually fly (well, skip actually) off on their quest to find the lost toy/ they end up under the sea (SET PIECE). As they fly on to Never land, the children wonder how their parents are coping without them. The parents are having a party!! Whenever HOOK appears the audience shout out their warning and Alf and Sid insist that he wears a cork on his “dangerous” hook! PIRATES (set piece) invade and fight – with plastic cutlery (health and safety!) Fun occurs when the CROCODILE creeps up behind HOOK and Peter and the children successfully find the lost boys/toys. The show comes to a close when the crocodile eats the Health and Safety rule book. The cast can now fly home – Peter Pan Am airways of course!
