After only three months together, J.T. is shocked when his lover, Detective “Brick” Brickman decides he needs a little “break,” in their relationship, just to figure things out.

Heartbroken and angry, J.T. refuses to see Brick again or take any of his calls, and travels to Savannah with Penny, his friend and recently published new author to a romance writers’ convention in Savannah, Georgia. The old city is rife with stories of hauntings and mysteries and soon J.T. and Penny become embroiled in a mystery of their own.

Who’s killing the bestselling authors at the convention and why has the killer suddenly targeted J.T.? With a hurricane bearing down on them and both Brick and his brother Scott trying to make it to Savannah before the storm hits, they’ll all be lucky to make it out alive.
