On My Own Two Feet (1); My New Apartment

Melanie is ready to start her own life.

This means moving out of her parents' house, and renting her own place.

The first apartment she views spikes her interest immediately, but it isn't so much the apartment itself that seals the deal for her, it's more what's across the street.

After moving in, she gets a chance to meet her new neighbour, the object of her recent fantasies.

She quickly finds out that the attraction for him isn't a one way thing, he is attracted to her as well.

All characters in this book are over 18, and so should the persons be reading this work.
