Ten years ago, Sadie Bower and Ryan Young met on a snowy night on a train to London, two young people still finding their places in the world. Now she's an international film star, he's the man behind the scenes holding the boom mic, and they couldn't be further apart.

Sadie is determined to recapture the magic of their past, except Ryan has no interest in being paparazzi bait. Holiday cheer abounds, and one glamorous movie premiere later, they're reliving that long-ago night together. Except more than just Christmas wishes are on the line—this time, it's their hearts.
