Born in the heart of one of Detroit's most poverty stricken neighborhoods, Renee Smith is no stranger to struggle. After being forced into teenage parenthood by a brutal rape at the age of 17, she turns to alcohol to numb the pain. Due to her addiction, her life seemed to have completely passed her by, including being a mother to her daughter. But after a health scare, she is forced to face her reality through a sober mind.

Davon "Diesel" Jones was the player that had all the women falling to his feet. He's a hood legend with stylishly good looks, lots of money, and an even bigger ego. But, when his playboy ways catches up to him, it ends in the tragic death of his fiancé and their unborn child. Over 9 years later, he's still suffering the repercussions.

Both Renee and Diesel had pretty much given up on having a normal life, and love even. But after fate brings them together, and submerge them into an explosive love affair there's no turning back from there. So take a journey with this modern day Bonnie and Clyde. The depths of their relationship is electrifying!
