Lyric is a very popular young lady from Philly's own public housing, Richard Allen. She suffers a spiral events that leaves her hanging by threads from disloyalty, dishonesty, betrayal, and rape; which has her solving problems by feeding bodys with her 9mm. Lyric also finds herself in love with two men but forces keeps her from revealing her true feeling until its maybe too late. Jay is the prince of Philly and gets what he wants by any means necessary. Crossing him, you might as well hand your balls over on a silver platter. When Jay enlists Lyric's help for laundering and with motives of his own, they make it rain all over Philly. But what happens if one was disloyal to the other? Would it be Lyric to put her 9mm to use or would Jay send her body to the morgue? Love has never been so deadly and friendships has never been so crooked.
