Townsend, Tennessee: On the Peaceful Side of the Smokies (A Companion to the Natural Wonders of Cades Cove) David Feist

There are two vacation destinations I love. They are the two tiniest mountain villages I know of. One is in northern PA population 318. The other is Townsend, Tennessee, near where I live. I cannot get enough of this American small town, and its Cades Cove up the Mountain. The Great Smoky Mountains are the most visited National Park in the U.S., but certainly not this side. See the beauty behind the smallness in this thorough depiction of an old "one horse town" beloved by so many for its solitude.
