A Curvy Girl in a Skinny World K R Nicholson

Samantha Miller, growing up in the beautiful city of Savannah, GA, has always been unlucky in love. With the help of her crazy friends she finds herself tripping and falling head over heels into a new life she never imagined for herself. Once into this new life Samantha realizes there are deep costs for her happiness and wondering if it is too good to be true. "I never imagined myself this way. I never imagined that I could be happy and unhappy at the same time. Trying not to lose myself is hard. He has such a strong effect on me. The sight of him takes my breath away but, are the looks and the charm enough? Together, will we be enough?"
