Kingdom Come: An Abbreviated Bible Critter Karr

The Bible. The best-selling book of all time. Revered by many, reviled by others, and misread by millions, the Bible is the most controversial book in human history, yet few have actually read it cover to cover. Who has time to read one thousand of the most dense, ancient, and hugely complex pages ever written?

Critter Karr's "Kingdom Come" is an abbreviated version of the most influential book in Western civilization. All the major characters and main ideas have been condensed and simplified into one streamlined, easy-to-read narrative. This one-of-a-kind adaptation recounts an epic story that is at once familiar and strange, enlightening and perplexing, profound and contradictory, hilarious and horrifying. Experience the powerful ideas that forever altered the modern world.
